January 2, 1987

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

On behalf of the Administrative Office of the Courts and in accordance with the provisions of 20 O.S. § 16.11, the Oklahoma Judiciary Annual Report and Statistical Appendix for Fiscal Year 1986 are made available to the members of the Legislature, as well as to other interested public officials.

This report is divided into two separate volumes. The first volume includes narratives and aggregate statewide statistics and the second, an appendix, contains statistics of the individual counties and judicial districts. The purpose in segregating the material is to provide a synopsis of the overall statewide workload in the annual report and present a more in-depth presentation of statistical information in the appendix.

In reviewing the aggregate statewide caseload statistics in this report, please note that caseloads did not sustain as large a percentage of increase as in previous years. There still exists, however, the need for re-evaluation of the number of judges per judicial district because of population changes and caseload growth experienced over the past eight years.

The fact that the caseload in the Supreme Court has grown at a rate of 300% over the past ten years caused the initiation of an accelerated docket program to reduce the caseload backlog. Over a period of 12 months, the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals disposed of 2,284 cases. Although this program reduced the case backlog tremendously, the burden upon the support staff continues to be a major obstacle in maintaining pace with the caseload growth.

I want to express my appreciation to Chief Justice Robert D. Simms and the justices of the Oklahoma Supreme Court for their support and assistance during this year. In concluding, I want to express my appreciation to the judges, court clerks, and entire staff of the Administrative Office of the Courts for their efforts in producing this report.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles E Ferrell, Jr.

Charles E. Ferrell, Jr.
Administrative Director of the Courts

ORGANIZATION

An Overview

The judicial branch of the government of the State of Oklahoma, which is constitutionally vested with powers separate and distinct from those of the legislative and executive branches, underwent a significant change in 1969 when a constitutional amendment, approved by state voters, went into effect. Since that time, no major changes in the structure of the judicial system have occurred.

Presently, the judicial power is vested in courts which fall into four categories: courts of last resort, intermediate appellate courts, courts of general jurisdiction and courts of limited jurisdiction. The Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals are the courts of last resort. The Supreme Court, in addition to having jurisdiction over all civil appeals, has a general superintending control over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards created by law and general administrative authority over all courts except the Court on the Judiciary and the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment. The Court of Criminal Appeals has exclusive appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases.

The Court of Appeals is the intermediate appellate court authorized by the constitution and created by the Legislature in 1970. This court decides civil appeals assigned to it by the Supreme Court.

The court of general jurisdiction in Oklahoma is the District Court which has unlimited original jurisdiction over all justiciable matters. The state is divided into 26 District Court judicial districts.

Courts of limited jurisdiction include the Court on the Judiciary, the Workers' Compensation Court, the Court of Tax Review and Municipal Courts. The Court on the Judiciary, consisting of a trial division and an appellate division, came into existence in 1966 with the adoption of a constitutional amendment. This court has jurisdiction over all proceedings brought against judges for removal from office. The Workers' Compensation Court hears and determines claims brought by employees against employers for work-related injuries. The Court on Tax Review, consisting of three district judges designated by the Governor, hears protests concerning tax levies. Municipal Courts hear prosecutions involving violations of municipal ordinances. Cities having populations of more than 200,000 have a Municipal Criminal Court of Record. All other Municipal Courts are courts not of record.

To assist the Chief Justice in exercising the general administrative authority of the Supreme Court over all courts in the state, the constitution authorizes the appointment of an Administrative Director and staff. The Administrative Office of the Courts works closely with the Supreme Court, and particularly the Chief Justice, in administering the judicial branch of government of the State of Oklahoma.

The Supreme Court

The Oklahoma Constitution grants to the Supreme Court appellate jurisdiction in all civil cases. In the event of a conflict over jurisdiction between the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Supreme Court makes the final determination. The Supreme Court also has a general superintending control over all inferior courts, agencies, commissions and boards as well as administrative authority over all courts in the state except the Court on the Judiciary and a Senate Court of Impeachment. Additionally, the Supreme Court has the exclusive power and authority to discipline attorneys and pass upon the qualifications of all applicants for admission to the practice of law within the state.

The nine justices, one from each of the Supreme Court judicial districts, serve six-year terms. At the general election preceding the expiration of a term of office, a justice who desires to remain in office files a declaration of candidacy to succeed himself. In a nonpartisan election, if a majority of those who cast ballots vote in favor of retention, the justice will serve another term.

Any vacancy on the Supreme Court is filled by gubernatorial appointment from a list of nominees submitted by the Judicial Nominating Commission. These nominees are selected by the Commission from a group of applicants from the appropriate Supreme Court judicial district.

The Supreme Court selects a Chief Justice and Vice-Chief Justice who serve two-year terms. In addition, the court appoints a Clerk of the Supreme Court and an Administrative Director of the Courts, who both serve at the pleasure of the Supreme Court. James W. Patterson, as Clerk of the Supreme Court, is responsible for maintaining all records of the Supreme Court. The Administrative Director, Charles E. Ferrell, Jr., assists the Chief Justice in his various administrative duties.

The Court of Appeals

The caseload of the Court of Appeals is comprised solely of civil appeals assigned to it by the Supreme Court. Final decisions of the Court of Appeals are not directly appealable to the Supreme Court, however, if a majority of the justices agree that certiorari should be granted, the decision may be reviewed by the Supreme Court.

Each of the 12 judges of the Court of Appeals is assigned by the Supreme Court to one of four permanent divisions, two of which sit in Tulsa County and two in Oklahoma County. Two judges serve from each of the six congressional districts in the state. They are elected in nonpartisan elections for six-year terms.

If a vacancy occurs on the Court of Appeals, the Governor appoints a successor from the congressional district in which the vacancy exists. In making the appointment, the Governor may consider the recommendation of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court also serves as Clerk of the Court of Appeals.

The Court of Criminal Appeals

Jurisdiction of all criminal appeals rests exclusively with the Court of Criminal Appeals. The three-member court decides appeals from the District Courts and the Municipal Criminal Courts of Record.

The judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals are selected in the same manner as Supreme Court justices from three Court of Criminal Appeals judicial districts. They serve six-year terms and are subject to a non-partisan statewide vote on their retention. Any vacancies on the court are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission.

The Clerk of the Supreme Court serves as the ex officio Clerk of the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The District Courts

The District Courts have unlimited original jurisdiction in all justiciable matters and the power of review in administrative actions designated by statute. In addition, appeals from Municipal Courts not of record are heard by the District Courts as trials de novo.

There are 26 District Court judicial districts in Oklahoma. Each such district consists of an entire county or several contiguous counties. For the purposes of administration, the judicial districts are combined into nine judicial administrative districts. A district judge is selected as presiding judge by all the district and associate district judges within the judicial administrative district. Subject to the authority of the Supreme Court, the presiding judge has general administrative authority and supervision over all courts within the district.

The District Courts consist of 71 district judges, 77 associate district judges and 58 special judges. District judges and associate district judges are elected for four-year terms in nonpartisan elections within their respective counties or judicial districts. If a vacancy occurs, the Governor appoints a replacement with the assistance of the Judicial Nominating Commission. Special judges are appointed by the district judges of the judicial administrative district.

A District Court Clerk is elected from each county for a four-year term. Once elected, they serve as county officers and are responsible for maintaining all court records.

The Court on the Judiciary

The Court on the Judiciary consists of a trial division and an appellate division. The trial division is composed of nine members, eight of whom are district judges, senior in service and under the age of 60, and one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors. The appellate division is composed of two members of the Supreme Court, chosen by the court; one member of the Court of Criminal Appeals, selected by the court; one active member of the Oklahoma Bar Association, chosen by its Board of Governors; and five district judges senior in service and under the age of 65. Each division of the Court on the Judiciary selects its presiding judge.

Any justice or judge of any court is subject to removal from office or compulsory retirement by proceedings in the Court on the Judiciary. Jurisdiction of the trial division of the Court on the Judiciary may be invoked by a petition filed by the Supreme Court or the Chief Justice, the Governor, the Attorney General, the Executive Director of the Oklahoma Bar Association (upon direction by the Board of Governors), or by resolution of the House of Delegates, or by resolution of the House of Representatives of the State of Oklahoma. After a full hearing, the trial division renders its judgment. From any judgment of the trial division, the respondent or the prosecutor may appeal to the appellate division which may affirm, modify, or reverse the judgment.

The Council on Judicial Complaints

The Council on Judicial Complaints was established as the investigatory body for the Court on the Judiciary. The Council is empowered to investigate all complaints made against a member of the judiciary, who by reason of his or her office is subject to the jurisdiction of the Court on the Judiciary. The Council may dismiss a complaint or recommend that the matter be made the subject of proceedings before the Court on the Judiciary.

The Council consists of three members, with two being members of the Oklahoma Bar Association. They serve five-year terms. The Administrative Director of the Courts serves as ex officio secretary to the Council.

The Judicial Nominating Commission

When a vacancy in a judicial office occurs, the role of the Judicial Nominating Commission comes into play. It is the responsibility of the commission to accept applications for the judicial vacancy, select three nominees and submit the names of the nominees to the Governor and the Chief Justice. The Governor shall, within sixty days, appoint a nominee to fill the vacancy. If the Governor fails to do so, the Chief Justice makes the appointment. The Administrative Office of the Courts assists the Judicial Nominating Commission in its duties.

The Judicial Nominating Commission consists of thirteen members. Six of the members are appointed by the Governor, one from each of the six congressional districts existing in 1967. These persons may not be lawyers. The active members of the Oklahoma Bar Association elect six lawyers, one from each of the six 1967 congressional districts. A thirteenth at-large member who may not be a lawyer, is appointed by eight or more of the members. The members elect a chairman to serve a one-year term.

ADMINISTRATION

The Administrative Office of the Courts

As authorized by the constitution and by statute, the Supreme Court appoints an Administrative Director of the Courts to assist the Chief Justice in exercising his administrative authority within the judicial branch of government. The duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Office of the Courts are grouped into three divisions: financial services, court services and legal services.

Financial Services Division

Fiscal and personnel matters are handled by this division which is responsible for appropriated funding requests, budgets, accounting and payroll support for the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and District Courts.

In performing its accounting function, the Financial Services Division receives and processes all expenditures from appropriated and dedicated funds and reconciles monthly statements of account.

In its personnel capacity, the Division provides the administrative accounting and clerical services necessary to maintain a work force of 487 judicial and nonjudicial personnel. This work force includes judges, trial court administrators, court reporters and secretaries for the District Courts, and justices, judges, judicial assistants, clerks, marshals, referees, secretaries and administrative staff for the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals.

Court Services Division

This division is composed of sections providing a variety of services to the District Courts and the appellate courts. The areas of responsibility of the Court Services Division include data processing (Oklahoma Court Information System), local court fund budget assistance, procedural reference service for court clerks, and statewide purchasing for the courts.

The primary objective of the Oklahoma Court Information System is to provide automated case management and tracking to the District Courts and appellate courts in addition to the auxillary information processing necessary for court operation. Initial plans call for total central information processing of all cases in the 18 counties with the largest caseloads. The balance of the counties will be served in the long-range plan by local microprocessor based units.

Currently Oklahoma County and Tulsa County are utilizing the system for all civil cases and three additional counties are projected to be added to the network before the end of Fiscal Year 1987. Criminal case processing software will be installed in early FY-87 for use initially in Tulsa and then Oklahoma counties with expansion to other major counties in subsequent periods.

In the appellate courts, the Appellate Case Tracking System provides data storage and retrieval capabilities for criminal as well as civil appeals.

The Administrative Office of the Courts utilizes the Court Information System to monitor all financial activities and caseload statistics in the District Courts. The system is also used for internal management functions such as payroll, judicial personnel tracking and court reporter licensing and tracking. Jury selection systems are ready to be activated when applicable.

Legal Services Division

Due to the diversity of its duties, the Administrative Office of the Courts has contact with a number of groups in and outside of the court system. The Legal Services Division interacts with judges, court clerks, court reporters, legislators and the general public.

Supplying legal information to various people in the court system is a primary function of this division. This includes conducting legal research, and monitoring legislation effecting the courts as it progresses through the legislative process.

Through the Legal Services Division, the Administrative Office provides clerical assistance to the Council on Judicial Complaints, the Judicial Nominating Commission, the Oklahoma Judicial Conference, the Assembly of Presiding Judges, the Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee and the State Foster Care Review Advisory Board.

A new section of the Legal Services Division includes the Dispute Resolution System. Begun in November, 1985, this program has a statutory purpose of providing to all citizens of Oklahoma convenient access to fair, effective, inexpensive, and expeditious alternative methods of settling their disputes.

To aid in the accomplishment of this purpose, the System receives in a revolving fund, collected by 77 court clerks, $2 for every civil case filed in Oklahoma, and $5 from each party using the services of a volunteer mediator in a certified dispute resolution center.

It is the duty of the Administrative Director to administer and supervise the local dispute resolution programs, as well as to encourage and assist in their establishment throughout Oklahoma, and to dispurse collected System monies to aid the centers with operational expenses.

FUNDING

The Appropriation Process

The budget requests for the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and District Courts, as approved by the Supreme Court, are submitted to the executive branch annually for inclusion in the Governor's budget recommendation to the Legislature. Although the Governor's recommendation does not necessarily contain all requested items, the original request is provided to the legislative branch and all information is available for consideration during the appropriation process.

Appropriated amounts within each of the court bills are broken down to identify funding available by program, or basic activity, and type of expenditure, i.e. personnel or operations. Also contained in the bills are restrictions on personnel authorization and selected expenditure items such as equipment and professional services contracts. Once approved by the Governor, total appropriations within a bill cannot be changed without further legislation. Individual items, including appropriations and limitations, within an appropriation bill may be adjusted by the Contingency Review Board which consists of the Governor, President Pro Tempore of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives.

When the appropriation process is complete, working budgets are prepared for the courts and submitted to the executive branch for approval. Until the budgets are approved, no obligations can be incurred against the appropriations.

Court Funding

The Oklahoma court system is funded from revenue that is appropriated by the Legislature and court-generated revenue which consists of fines, fees, and bond forfeitures collected by the 77 District Court clerks and the Clerk of the Supreme Court. Court generated revenue pays for 96% of the day-to-day operating expenses of the District Courts and 79% of personnel costs. The remainder of costs for the District Courts, the Supreme Court and the Court of Appeals is funded from General Revenue appropriations and the Workers' Compensation Administration Fund.

At the district court level, the revenue received is used for the local operation of the District Courts. These expenses are for items such as juror and witness costs, supplies, utilities for space occupied by the courts, attorney fees for indigent defense, bailiff and part-time court clerk employees, per diem court reporters, furniture, equipment purchases and equipment rentals. Additional expenses include payments required by statute to be paid to the Judicial Retirement System, Law Enforcement Training Fund and the County General Fund.

On a quarterly basis, each District Court Clerk files a report with the Administrative Office of the Courts that lists the local expenses and revenues and submits a deposit for the State Judicial Fund. The fees received by the Clerk of the Supreme Court are deposited directly into the State Judicial Fund. Two other sources of money for the State Judicial Fund are surplus funds transferred from the law libraries and court reporter license fees.

The State Judicial Fund is a continuous fund and not subject to fiscal year limitations. However, an appropriation is made by the Legislature from the State Judicial Fund for a portion of District Court operations. Some direct costs of the Supreme Court are paid from the State Judicial Fund and require no legislative appropriation. These costs are: jury trials where the local court fund is insolvent, costs related to criminal change of venue, attorney fees for indigent defendents charged with first degree murder, expenses related to the Council on Judicial Complaints, and expenses of the State Board of Examiners of Official Shorthand Reporters.

The general funding trend for the courts the past five fiscal years has been toward a slight decrease in the overall funding for courts as a portion of the total state budget (1.01% in 1982 to 1.0% in 1986) and a substantial increase in the portion of court generated funding utilized. Five years ago the appropriation for District Courts was 70% General Revenue Fund and 30% State Judicial Fund while the Supreme Court was funded 100% by General Revenue. This fiscal year the District Courts were funded 22.6% by General Revenue and 77.4% by court generated funds.* The Supreme Court was funded 45% by General Revenue and 55% by court generated revenue.

Total FY-85 Appropriations

Appropriations for the operating expenses of all departments and agencies of state government totalled $2,549,871,067 for Fiscal Year 1986. The appropriation from the General Revenue Fund for the operating expenses of the judiciary was $6,245,216. The Legislature also appropriated $12,235,253 from the State Judicial Fund and $4,000,000 from the Workers' Compensation Administration Fund. The total appropriated amount for the Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals and District Courts was $23,247,435. As illustrated in the chart below, General Revenue Fund, State Judicial Fund and Workers' Compensation Administration Fund appropriations for court operations comprised only 1% of the total appropriations for the operating expenses of all state agencies and branches of government.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

Statewide Statistics for District Courts

Included in this section are tables and graphs summarizing the caseload inventory of the District Courts for Fiscal Year 1986. Civil cases are categorized as general civil, domestic relations, small claims and probate. Criminal cases are either felony or misdemeanor.

These tables and graphs depict statewide totals. The Annual Report Statistical Appendix contains statistical data for each county and District Court judicial district.

Also included is a chart which ranks the District Court judicial districts according to population per authorized judgeships and cases filed per authorized judgeships.

The final chart in this section shows the total statewide cost of legal representation for indigents during the last four fiscal years. Payments are made on the state level from the State Judicial Fund to compensate attorneys who are appointed to represent indigents charged with Murder in the First Degree. At the local level, payments are made from the local court funds to public defender programs and for representation of indigents in criminal trials, criminal appeals and mental health proceedings.

CHARLES E. FERRELL JR.
DIRECTOR

January 29, 1987

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE:

The attached page represents counties of the Oklahoma District Court system ranked by contributions to the Oklahoma Judicial Fund for fiscal year 1986.

This sheet should be made a part of the Annual Report of the Judiciary for fiscal year 1986, previously submitted, and should replace page 38 in the subject report which was produced incorrectly.

Also, please be advised that the total contributions for fiscal year 1986 as reflected above the chart on page 39 should be $8,950,089 instead of $10,301,918 as shown.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles E. Ferrell, Jr.

Charles E. Ferrell, Jr.
Administrative Director of the Courts

Introduction

District Courts Statistical Information

The following pages contain the FY-86 caseload statistics for the 26 District Court judicial districts and the counties within each district. There are six major categories of cases reported: general civil, domestic relations, probate, small claims, felony and misdemeanor. For each of these categories, the number of cases filed, disposed of and pending is first presented, followed by a numerical breakdown of the methods of disposition.

Three of the major categories are divided into more specific case classifications with filing and disposition totals provided for each subdivision. Domestic relations cases are broken down into divorce, incoming reciprocal support, outgoing reciprocal support and all others. Felony cases are divided into felony D.U.I. and all others. Misdemeanor cases are categorized as misdemeanor D.U.I., traffic and non-motor vehicle misdemeanor.

Caution should be exercised in using these statistics as a means of determining judicial workloads. Judges spend a great deal of their time counseling, researching, traveling and performing administrative tasks. Courts in metropolitan areas face heavy and specialized caseloads. In other areas of the state, the distance between the towns in which court is held, and the additional duties involved in working with multiple staffs, are factors which must be taken into account.

Additionally, due to a variety of circumstances, no two cases are exactly alike although statistically, they are considered equal. Because these are factors involved which cannot be readily shown quantitatively, these things should be taken into consideration when the statistics are interpreted.
